The Ultimate Leo Man

Step into LEO and experience the first-of-its-kind multi-brand men's boutique

With men's fashion becoming more popular now than ever, having a multi-brand men's boutique like LEO, a new shopping concept dedicated entirely to men which features an exciting mix of over 19 leading designer brands, is a welcome move that makes fashion accessible for them to accentuate their individuality.

Located on the Adorn floor at Starhill Gallery, this unique boutique, which is wholly conceptualised and operated by Niche Retailing, offers everything a man needs in terms of accessories, brilliantly displayed around the store. LEO features luxury brands of distinguished heritage, design and craftsmanship. Here you can find only the finest selection of shoes and boots from the likes of Fratelli Rossetti, StefanoBi and Cesare Paciotti, whilst designer names like Roberto Cavalli and Trussardi grace the boutique in a range of luxury leather goods and accessories. Those looking for a sturdy and excellent leather bag or briefcase can check out Pollini, a distinct brand known for its design excellence.

LEO is more than just another fashion boutique. This 2,500 sq ft boutique offers its customers an ultimate shopping experience, giving them a whole new level of comfort and pleasure. The decor of the boutique itself is very sleek and urban, and there's a spacious and cosy lounge with beautiful designer furniture. On top of that, an elegant pop-up café features a mini bar and mini coffee counter where refreshments are served and customers can relax and unwind while making their selections from the wide range of designer brands available – perfect for the gentleman with a busy lifestyle.

It's the ideal luxurious concept store for the discerning man. Make LEO your next shopping destination for an unforgettable experience that will keep you coming back for more.
